HEI CLAIM

East Point College of Pharmacy, affiliated with Rajiv Gandhi University of Health Sciences (RGUHS) in Karnataka, adheres to the university's curriculum, which is devised and endorsed by the Board of Studies and approved by the Academic Council/Senate. The institution meticulously plans and executes the curriculum, aligning it with RGUHS guidelines and its own vision and mission. Supporting documentation, including academic calendars, meeting records, timetables, subject allotments, and advanced course plans, substantiates the structured approach to curriculum planning and delivery, particularly under the Outcome-Based Education (OBE) system. Innovative pedagogical methods are employed to impart the curriculum, supported by records of Continuous Internal Evaluation (CIE) conduction. Faculty involvement in university-level academic activities ensures alignment with teaching and evaluation standards. Notable academic achievements at the university level further validate the effective implementation of the curriculum at the institution.
