HEI CLAIM

East Point College of Pharmacy has high-quality infrastructure, such as well-equipped laboratories, research facilities, and technological resources, demonstrating the capability of the research institution or organization to effectively conduct the proposed project. This leads to higher-quality research outputs, including publications, patents, and prototypes, which are attractive to funding agencies seeking to support impactful projects. The future vision of the college is centred around fostering a culture of research excellence and innovation, with a commitment to continuously enhance research output. This vision is supported by a comprehensive research promotion policy that is regularly reviewed and amended to align with evolving national research landscapes.
