HEI CLAIM

Over the past half-decade, our institution has provided financial assistance to a portion of our teaching staff, facilitating their attendance at conferences, workshops, and covering membership fees for professional associations. This support underscores our unwavering commitment to their professional advancement and continuous learning. Additionally, the institution conducts regular audits to ensure transparency and accountability in financial operations, guaranteeing that allocated funds for these endeavors are utilized judiciously and effectively. The combination of financial support and rigorous financial audits reflects our dedication to both the development of our teaching staff and the responsible management of resources. Enclosed below is a table detailing audit reports for the past five financial years.

The audit reports mentioned consist of consolidated expenditure of Conferences and Workshops that have been sponsored and also conducted in the college.
